

1 CORINTHIANS EXPOSITORY OUTLINE

Chapter 6

Lawsuits, sin patterns, and the temple of the Holy Spirit.

1. Since believers, by the very fact that they believe in Christ, will one day condemn the world (nonbelievers) and angels (fallen), they should not go to the world's legal system for judgments on matters between themselves (6.1-3).
2. Believers should not engage unbeliever law courts to settle disputes between themselves. If there must be an authoritative decision, then believers should ask a qualified wise (mature) believer. The best solution is to leave these matters with the Lord. When believers take each other to court, it damages their Christian witness and each other (6.4-8).
3. Believers should not act like nonbelievers, people that are not members of God's kingdom. Nonbelievers are characterized by different sin patterns. The Corinthians are different. They were washed, sanctified, and justified through faith in Christ (6.9- 11).
4. Believers (like Paul) have the liberty to do or have anything that is not prohibited by God. But beware: Not everything is profitable and believers should not allow details of life (things allowed) to master them (6.12-14).
5. The body (which consumes details and is often controlled by them) is really for the Lord's use as the temple for the indwelling Holy Spirit. Immorality with a harlot is sin against the body because it brings a person's body under the harlot's control and therefore the body is not mastered by the Lord (6.15-20).
